

To our Patrons:

During the final week of rehearsals for our upcoming show of “The Dining Room”, the cast and crew was impacted by a COVID 19 outbreak which requires a delay in the opening of our latest production by two weeks. We have done our best to try and minimize the impact on our patrons and we appreciate your understanding.

For most of our performances, patrons will ONLY be impacted by a change in date as your seat assignments will remain the same. Unfortunately, due to scheduling conflicts, we will be shortening our run to only three weeks, which will impact those patrons with seats in the final week of performances (Week 4). These shows will be reassigned seats in alternate performances as listed below.
